

Saline and Sodic Soil Management Workshop and Field Tour

Tuesday, July 8th, 2014

Pierpont, SD (Follow the signs)

$10.00 Registration by July 2, 2014

TO PRE-REGISTER, VISIT:

<http://www.sdcorn.org/page/events/sub/viewall>

Morning Agenda

9:30 am	Registration
9:50 am	Welcome: Troy Knecht, VP, South Dakota Corn Growers Association
10:00 am	Cheryl Reese, SDSU Soils and Salt: Research Project Background, Objectives, and What's Happening Today
10:25 am	David Gillen, Farmer, White Lake, South Dakota Getting a Return on Investment in High Salt Soils.
10:50 am	Gregg Carlson, SDSU Saline and Sodium Salt Problems and Management in Dryland Corn Production.
11:15 am	Doug Malo / Rachel Owen, SDSU Redefining Saline/Sodic Soil Survey Map Units
11:40 am	Jason Miller / Andrew Oxford, USDA-NRCS Pierre Rainfall Demonstration – Saline/Sodic soils
12:05—1:00 pm	Lunch. Sponsors SD Wheat Growers and SD Corn Utilization Council

Afternoon Activities and Demonstrations (1– 3 pm)

(Afternoon beverages and snacks provided by Millborn Seeds)

Demonstrations Under Tent:

Soil stability tests

Web Soil Survey: Are there soil saline or sodium issues on your farm?

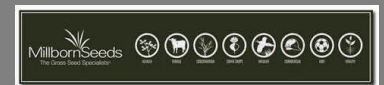

Handheld soil electrical conductivity (EC), pH meters, moisture probes, etc.

Field Site Visit

Soil Pit : What's Underground??

Soil Amendment Plots

Gypsum or Lime in Your Fields?

Thanks to Sponsors

Greg Tople, Pierpont, SD
Use of Facilities and Soil Pit Prep.

